

Paul J. Price
Casualty of World War II

Paul J. Price, son of George Phillip and Nydia F. Taylor Price was born in Lehi, November 8, 1924.

On August 3, 1943, he entered active service training as an airplane mechanic.

While at Peyote, Texas, receiving final training, prior to overseas duties, he was killed in an airplane crash, August 24, 1945.